

rebecca minor

gender specialist

Rebecca Minor, MSW, LICSW is a neuroqueer femme, clinician, consultant, and educator specializing in the intersection of trauma, gender, and sexuality.

As a Gender Specialist, Rebecca partners with trans and gender expansive youth through their journey of becoming, and is a guide to their parents in affirming it. Rebecca is part-time faculty at Boston University School of Social work and always works through a lens that is neurodiversity affirming, trauma-informed, and resilience-oriented.

In addition to her clinical work, Rebecca has provided cultural humility training and consultation to organizations, schools, and businesses for the past decade.

Talks & Trainings:

- Gender & Sexuality Identity Party™
- Speak Up! Tools For Active Trans Allyship
- The Power of Trans Youth: Diversity & Allyship through Storytelling
- Beyond Labels: Celebrating Workplace Diversity in Gender and Sexuality
- Navigating Gendered Language with Confidence and Respect

"Rebecca showed up with compassion, humor, and a wealth of knowledge and experience. People were very positive about the discussion and can't wait for a follow-up. I'd highly recommend Rebecca as a crucial and compelling voice on any issues pertaining to transgender or gender-diverse youth. She is a truly wonderful resource."
